

Psalm 3

Lord, how many are my enemies! Many stand against me; many say of my soul: for him there is no salvation with God.

But you Lord, are a shield before me, my glory, and You raise my head.
With a voice I call to the Lord, and He hears me from His holy mountain. I lay, sleep, and stand because the Lord protects me. I will not fear 10,000 people, who stand against me round about.

Stand Lord! Save me My God! Because you strike the face of all my enemies and shatter the teeth of the ungodly. Salvation is from the Lord. Through your people is Your blessing.
